25X1

Mexico: There is a general feeling of insecurity in the capital following the unprecedented violence of 2 October.

Mexico City is rife with rumors to the point where minor events lead to stories of revolution and military take-over. According to US Embassy calculations, the lack of confidence is reflected in the substantial losses in the Bank of Mexico's net reserve position, which confirms rumors of capital flight.

Some relatively minor disruptions, including sniper fire and small bomb explosions, have occurred, and student propaganda advising foreigners to leave Mexico appears to be widely distributed.
